

ABOUT THE CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY INSTITUTE

The Children's Advocacy Institute (CAI) was founded in 1989 as a part of the Center for Public Interest Law at the University of San Diego School of Law. CAI is an academic and advocacy center dedicated to promoting the health, safety, and welfare of children.

CAI's program includes:

- ◆ academic courses and clinical training of law students in child advocacy (including dependency court internship training in the representation of abused children);
- ◆ policy advocacy on behalf of children in the legislature, state agencies, the courts, and before the public;
- ◆ legal and budget research on issues relevant to children's health and well-being; and
- ◆ the Information Clearinghouse on Children, a resource and research service on children's issues to assist journalists, public officials, and academicians.

Contributions to CAI are tax deductible. For further information, please visit our website at www.acusd.edu/childrensissues or contact us at:
