

Attention Law Students...

Apply now for the

2021 JOEL AND DENISE GOLDEN MERIT AWARD IN CHILD ADVOCACY

The Joel and Denise Golden Merit Award in Child Advocacy is presented annually by the Children's Advocacy Institute (CAI) to a USD School of Law student who, while still engaged in the study of law, is already using his or her developing legal skills to help vulnerable populations of children and youth.

- ▶ Any second-year full-time or third-year part-time USD Law student may apply
- ▶ To apply, write a one-page essay describing how you are using your developing legal skills on behalf of vulnerable populations of children and youth. Discuss one specific experience or describe your work more generally (e.g., your experiences working on behalf of Juvenile Court-involved children or youth or conducting relevant research and advocacy through CAI's Child Advocacy Clinic, etc.). Include your name, email, and phone number and submit it to Elisa Weichel via email (see below).
- ▶ Deadline: 5:00 pm on May 28, 2021
- ▶ The award will be $500
